BAWTRY HALL WEDDING VENUE

Contemporary manor house, perfectly situated on the Yorkshire and Nottinghamshire borders, Bawtry Hall is a grand Grade II* listed building. Located in the picturesque market town of Bawtry, this redbrick hall makes for an ideal weekend wedding base for you and your guests.

Idyllically situated in the heart of a historic market town, Bawtry Hall was constructed in 1778 by Pemberton Milnes, and swiftly became the focal point for local society. Boasting an opulent white Tuscan front porch, this elegant building is encapsulated by decadent, landscaped gardens embellished with crisp white hydrangeas.

We hope you will love the juxtaposition of Bawtry Hall with its grand exterior and façade, and interior which is contemporary, yet elegant! Our grounds and gardens give you stunning outdoor private space, but being located close to Bawtry town means you can make a full ‘wedding weekend’ if you wish – enjoy the restaurants, wine and cocktail bars the night prior to your wedding day with friends and family.

Many describe Bawtry Hall as the perfect ‘party house’ with elegant rooms within which can be used to create your wedding daydream.
